Something different...

From nautical beachside marquees to ultra-luxe super-yachts, there's an unusual location to suit every taste

The Gallivant, East Sussex

If you imagine tying the knot in a scenic beachside location, The Gallivant is for you. Set just a stone's throw from the dunes of Camber, this hotel offers a shabby chic take on the British seaside, with a nautical-inspired marquee and delicious local dishes. Hire from £1,000, maximum 120 guests. Visit thegallivant.co.uk.

Sunborn London

There's something oh-so-celebrity about tying the knot on a luxury super-yacht. Recently opened for weddings, the sleek Sunborn yacht is permanently moored at London's Royal Victoria Docks so you can say 'I do' in a quirky urban setting, with views of the impressive London skyline. Packages from £85 per person, maximum 160 guests. Visit sunbornhotels.com.

Wedding Yurts, nationwide

For those who dream of celebrating their day in tented quirkiness, these colourful bohemian-style yurts are perfect. Handcrafted from sweet chestnut wood, with solid oak floors and a simple cream canvas, if you're an eco-loving couple wanting a festival feel to your day, this could be a dream come true. Based in Bristol, the tents can be delivered and set up anywhere in the UK. Prices and capacity vary, visit weddingyurts.co.uk.

South Farm, Hertfordshire

This working farm has everything you might expect, and then some. There's a pretty painted farmhouse, timber-framed barn and gorgeous gardens to create an unequalled country setting, as well as friendly farm animals and brightly coloured caravans to ensure a striking set of photos. Hire from £900, maximum 200 guests. Visit south-farm.co.uk.
