THE GALLIVANT HOTEL EAST SUSSEX

Beach weddings don't come any prettier than at this idyllic retreat. Set behind the rolling sand dunes of the stunning Camber Sands coastline, this New England-style hotel is relaxed, intimate and has that nostalgic, seaside vibe for a laid-back, outdoor day. Think canapes delivered in traditional picnic hampers, flip-flops for all your guests and a beach hut instead of a marquee with driftwood benches and lime-washed chairs. Pure summer lovin'. ## TREGENNA CASTLE CORNWALL

Ever imagined getting married in a castle? Or by the sea? We've got both covered with this magical venue. Exchange vows in an ocean-facing pavilion set among meandering gardens overlooking the postcard-perfect village of St Ives, before toasting your marriage with a glass of Pimm's on the immaculate lawn. We can't think of a more quintessentially English venue. This one really makes the heart sing. tregenna-castle.co.uk

LIME WOOD HAMPSHIRE

Yes, it's a punchy price (weddings start from £30,000) but we promise your day will be worth every penny. Five years in the making, Lime Wood is a luxury hotel like no other. Keeping the spirit of the past whilst exuding contemporary luxe, it's the most sought-after country house hotel in the UK right now. limewoodhotel.co.uk

THE HURLINGHAM CLUB LONDON

Thought you had to be a member of this exclusive tennis club to get married here? Think again. You can create your own bespoke day at this striking Georgian country house set within 42 acres of landscaped gardens. And best of all, it's situated right in the heart of the capital. With nine magnificent function rooms to choose from (with a capacity to hold up to 1,000 people) you truly are spoilt for choice. Why not choose an original sporty theme and have games such as croquet and bowls on the elegant lawns as part of the festivities – champagne in hand, of course.
