EVENTS AT THE GALLIVANT

Looking for somewhere to host an amazing event?

A private meeting, special dinner or something else perhaps?

Set behind the dunes and extraordinary sandy beach beyond, we are a relaxing beach house hotel where busy adults can escape the humdrum of city life.

We have twenty beautiful bedrooms, a sitting room with a roaring log fire, a book lined snug that you won't want to leave, a bar that looks like it was dropped in from Hoxton, a dining room that has a very definite New Hamptons edge and a beach which is simply drop dead gorgeous.

We have hosted private dinner parties, corporate away days, weddings and christenings, product launches, board meetings, overnight retreats, film crews and photoshoots.

You can hire everything from The Cabin (our private dining room) to the whole site, when the Gallivant becomes exclusively yours.

Naturally we treat every event with the same passionate attention to detail as the last.

However, what we are most proud about and what separates us from the crowd, is our team are here to make you smile, from the moment you arrive to the time we say farwell.

We are located two hours by car from Central London or just over an hour by train.

What is the Gallivant experience? Relax, unwind and enjoy the moment.

LOCAL EVERYTHING

FOOD AND DRINK

We serve food that makes the most of the incredible local ingredients we have on our doorstep. Fish so fresh it could have been caught that morning and fruit and veg that was picked hours earlier.

From canapés to sit down celebrations for breakfast, lunch and dinner, with menus aligned to your requirements and to whatever is in season.

Alongside our local food sourcing policy, surrounded by some of the best English wine estates in the country, we are also passionate about the English wine scene.

We have the longest list of English wines in the UK and don't stock fizzy wine from anywhere else - English is best.

Yoga, pilates and meditation

We want everyone to feel better in their mind and body and run yoga classes all week. If you are interested in incorporating yoga or mindful meditation into an escape just ask.

Off site

We are set behind an incredible sandy beach, so beautiful we have to pinch ourselves every time we walk onto it. It's a top 10 location for photo shoots, an internationally recognised kite surfing location and the perfect spot for some beach yoga (classes run inside if the weather isn't nice).

Rye's cobbled streets are 4 miles away and Hastings, as in 'The Battle of', and now the home of the famous Jerwood Gallery is 15 miles away.

If wine appreciation is more your thing we can help organise exclusive, bespoke tours of some the best English vineyards that surround us, taking advantage of the unparalleled network of friends that we have in this area. These are just a few ideas to whet your appetite.
